 Chapter 1 *****

Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Sagittarius

You were born under the sign of SAGITTARIUS and your ruling planet is Jupiter, the planet of expansion, happiness and good luck.

Your Sun sign is MUTABLE and this will impel you to function as a COMMUNICATOR, either in thought or action. You won't feel comfortable in a leadership position, but rather in a subordinate or hands on position. Although you may hold an important job, you are more comfortable knowing that someone else has the principal responsibility.

Sagittarius is a FIRE sign and this makes you positive, spontaneous, ardent, proud and active; undertaking enterprises with certain risks and seeking recognition from others. You have a strong will and great ambitions and are never satisfied with less. The fire element impels you to expand and to fight determinedly for your ideal, which sometimes may cause you to become aggressive, nervous or a tyrant.

You are very optimistic, good-natured and enthusiastic. You like action and are inclined to participate in sports activities, to travel, or to maintain quite an intensive social life. You love freedom and don't adhere to a daily routine. You enjoy outdoor activities, contact with nature and the thrill of adventure. You are very restless and curious, which could lead to risky or unexpected situations, but thanks to your naivety and optimism you always leap forward and receive unexpected guidance or simply ignore the problems around you.

You like to share your life and tend to be very generous with your resources. You seek extended knowledge and are inclined to study, investigate, question or exchange opinions with others. You are very attracted to distant lands and different cultures, and are always prepared to travel and to learn. It is easy for you to communicate and to learn languages, and your natural friendliness permits you to make friends quickly. Your attitude will always be youthful, naive and spontaneous.

You were born to conquer new horizons, to discover, to travel, to connect, to relate to different people, to learn, and to teach. Your missions are to make a happier life, to teach, to have a positive mind, to have optimism, to defend just causes, to impose justice, and to put people around you into action. Your enthusiasm for action will be contagious and will teach others to fight for their dreams.

To evolve, your spirit needs to learn to control restlessness and anxiety. You have to incorporate more maturity into your attitudes toward life and avoid being influenced by others. You have to learn to assume responsibilities, not to leave things to luck, to avoid laziness or unconcern, to execute your plans instead of just talk about them, not to procrastinate, to be more realistic and sincere, to avoid exaggerating and giving the impression of knowing it all.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Libra

Others see you as a sophisticated, delicate and harmonious person. You are very charismatic and at the same time have a natural smoothness that allows you to easily relate to others. You are sociable, congenial and charming. Your style is likely to be fine and delicate and you dress with refined and good taste.

You seek balance and harmony in your surroundings and can't tolerate aggressiveness or dishonest dealings, which will lead you to flee from noisy people and tense situations. You are very romantic and that may cause you to quickly become disillusioned with people. You have a gift for seduction and conquest and generally get others to do what you want. On the other hand, you have a distinct sense of justice and always analyze both sides of a situation, which could cause you to be indecisive and doubtful at important times. You tend to repress your aggressiveness in order to maintain harmony and will harbor anger toward people who hurt you. You have to learn to forgive and forget disagreements.

The profession you choose will have to stimulate your artistic creativity, your sense of justice and order, and your sociability; avoid working in distasteful, noisy and solitary environments or where you would have to act swiftly or aggressively.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Aquarius

Your emotions are rapid, changing and unstable. Your way of feeling and of expressing your feelings will be very unusual and free. You don't have any prejudices or ties, which allows you to wholly offer yourself. Your mind and your heart work together and you probably rationalize or intellectualize your affections and interests a lot. You are very friendly, but at the same time indifferent. You tend to have a fear of intimacy and are not very comfortable with great demonstrations of affection. You try to avoid any ties, but at the same time constantly need relief from your inner nervous tension.

You are very independent and don't follow the traditional social limits. You are sociable and easily relate to other people. You are interested in group and humanitarian activities, and could do well in politics or in a position that benefits a large number of people. You aim toward the future and reject everything that is traditional and classic. You are likely to be misunderstood and often times are criticized for your way of thinking, however, this will not inhibit you. You will be an example of freedom and you will rebel for others around you. On the other hand, you have a strong intuition and are attracted to astrology and other hidden sciences.

Subconsciously, you have a strong desire to transform your life and to detach yourself from all sorts of ties. In previous lives you may have stayed in small communities or tribes, or very closed societies that forced you to work according to the needs of the group. You were accustomed to think about the functions of others. In this incarnation you have to learn to develop your individuality without isolation, and to use your creative power to change the suffocating conditions that surround you.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to express your originality and to transform your environment. You need to feel free to communicate your ideas. You like to call attention to yourself and always want to preserve your independence.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Sagittarius

You tend to have a very curious mind and never stop asking questions. Because of your great interest in the whole universe, you are likely to be a good student. You want to know about geography, history, sciences and mathematics, etc., and are enthusiastic and dedicated to your studies. You also have an inclination toward philosophy and religion, are attracted to all kinds of new ideas and are likely to pursue higher education. You probably won't pay much attention to details and tend to make hasty decisions.

Your way of communicating is frank, open, sympathetic and uninhibited, although sometimes you could get into trouble for saying things in the wrong place or to the wrong person. You are very sociable and like to share your knowledge with others. Your great curiosity enables you to learn from everyone and from every situation, but your opinions will not be consistent. You could be influenced by the people you admire and whose recognition you seek. You have a great sense of humor and always see the funny side of your experiences. Your great sympathy and enthusiasm will make you very popular among your friends.

* Chapter 2 *******

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths.
Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 3rd house:

You have an exceptional mind which enables you to think and devise very personal solutions to your problems. It is important for you to study and to stimulate your intellect, because your self-confidence will be based on that. Your success in life is related to a form of communication, such as journalism, literature, lecturing and teaching etc.

If you have brothers or sisters, they will exercise a powerful influence on your life and you may have a very strong attachment to one of them. Because of your inquisitive mind, you are likely to travel a lot and seek to communicate with different people. You tend to be very curious and are interested in everything that is different. The negative side of this influence could cause you to be nervous, fickle, arrogant or very dominant with your opinions.

Sun conjunct Mercury:

You have a powerful mind that will guide you intelligently in your life pursuits. Your ideas are intense and passionate, and you plan your objectives with sufficient forethought and firmness. Not easily influenced, you don't change your mind unless it is your own decision. This confidence in your own ideas will cause you to be successful in your life.

Sun Sextile Moon:

There is a harmonious balance between your ego and your emotions. Your inner balance allows you to act calmly and moderately, and you are likely to attain the things you want without many problems. You are firm and sound in your decisions and are well suited for a profession in the public arena.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 5th house:

You are likely to be very inventive and could excel in a career in teaching, sports or the theater. You have a great deal of charm and can get along well with people, especially children.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Virgo on 12th house cusp

You have a tendency to neglect your intellectual capacity as well as your personal ability to solve problems. You are inclined toward comfort and seldom make sacrifices in your life. You will have to take up some type of gymnastics to maintain a balance between your mind and body. Your mind never stops thinking and this could lead to constant worries and a possible nerve crisis.

This influence could indicate some kind of disease kept secret or one that compels you to stay isolated. You also could have serious problems with personnel or co-workers.

Mars in 12th house:

Your wasted talent is your sports capacity. You tend to feel that your energy is limited and find it difficult to freely express your aggressiveness. Repressing it could bring health problems or alterations of your behavior. It is important that you learn to express your aggressiveness openly and constructively. Practicing some kind of sport, though it may not be professionally, would be ideal.

 Chapter 3 *****

Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn). To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Scorpio

Your sense of expansion manifests through your creativity and desire to change the world. You are an eternal investigator and because of your great desire to know and learn, you question everything. You are interested in the supernatural and are inclined toward spiritual and mystical things. You have great faith and confidence in yourself and will be very persistent in the search of your objectives. Your material success will be expressed through your tenacity, faith and energy.

Jupiter in 2nd house:

You tend to be very successful in the business world and are likely to earn a lot of money throughout your life. However, you will have to learn to discipline yourself, as you have a tendency to be a spendthrift and could suffer financial losses because of your careless attitude toward money. Your material expansion could come through investments, import-export, travel and sales. You are inclined to have many possessions, because they will mean your safety and protection, and at the same time, you will be very generous and sharing with your loved ones.

Jupiter Square Venus:

You can be conceited and contented, and due to the over-protection you may have received, you could become negligent and scattered. You tend to exaggerate and your financial sense is not well developed. Overly optimistic, you are a bit unrealistic and therefore prone to situations that you are unable to handle. It would have been better if your parents had not been so complacent and taught you to earn things by yourself.

Jupiter Conjunct Pluto:

You are dedicated to your ideals and goals and will be able to reach positions of leadership throughout your life. Your emotions and expressions are intense and somewhat exaggerated. Your great honesty and aggressiveness could bring about a certain degree of animosity. You will have to learn to moderate and to direct your strong creative dynamic force positively.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Libra

The inhibition principle affects your way of relating to others. You are very reserved and could have certain difficulties in your social life. Though you will have few friends, your friendships are likely to be lasting. You have a strong sense of justice and would make a very good attorney or judge. You are always very diplomatic, tactful and sensitive with your opinions. You need a lot of time to make a decision; although you seem to be subject to indecision, in the end you usually make the right decision. This astrological position can complicate, delay or frustrate any kind of association.

Saturn in 1st house:

You are quiet and reserved, and tend to appear older than you really are. You are serious, responsible, patient and very conscientious. Generally, this position indicates a childhood with limitations and for this reason you may have matured before your time. You may have gone to work and sought your independence early in life. Your serious and trusting behavior caused you to easily earn the approval of your elders.

The principal frustration you may feel is not being able to demonstrate your affection and friendliness naturally. It is important that you learn to become affectionate, to mention what is going on inside you, and to loosen up without the fear of making mistakes. If you don't overcome these aspects, you will always be cold, egotistic and may suffer depression. You have to learn to forgive and forget your past. Try to eliminate all kinds of hatred or grievous recollections. If this influence is handled adequately, you will be able to reach each one of your goals thanks to your tenacity and perseverance, but first you need to achieve more personal freedom.

Saturn Conjunct Pluto:

You are ambitious for power and status. You are strong-willed and persistent in your efforts to achieve your goals. You can be manipulative; you understand others intuitively and can use them for your own benefit. Effective in all you undertake, you gain respect and admiration easily. You are secretive about your plans, and if you retreat into yourself too much, you could become obsessive and fanatical. It is important that you learn to be flexible with life's changes instead of resisting them.

Saturn Square Venus:

You tend to feel unloved or rejected by or indifference from one of your parents (probably your father). This makes you shy and unable to demonstrate your emotions freely, and minimizes your ability to progress in life. Chronically discontented, you often sacrifice happiness for duty. You tend to be on the defensive and fear rejection and lack of acceptance. If you don't overcome your inner complex, this aspect could bring sentimental as well as economical failures and loneliness. To solve this problem, you have to evaluate each one of your talents, increase your ability to love, and rely on each of your goals without waiting for approval from others.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

* Chapter 4 *******

Finances, source of income.

Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Scorpio on 2nd house cusp

Throughout your life you are likely to experience extremes in your financial situation. On one hand, you could have a considerable increase thanks to legacies and inheritances or by marriage to someone rich, but on the other hand, you may have times of crisis or limitations. In either case, the determining factor tends to be beyond your control. It would be wise to learn to save and to find a break-even point.

You could earn money by managing other people's goods or money, by investigations, by occupying positions of authority or by practicing a profession related to medicine.

Jupiter in 2nd house:

You tend to be very successful in business and are likely to earn a lot of money throughout your life. However, you will have to learn to discipline yourself, as you have a tendency to be a spendthrift and could suffer financial losses because of your careless attitude toward money. You could do well in investments, import-export, travel and sales, or in professions related to the administration of justice, government, education, literature, philosophy or religion. You are inclined to have many possessions because they will mean your safety and protection, and at the same time you will be very generous and sharing with your loved ones.

Uranus in 2nd house:

You will have to earn money through special and original methods that allow you to feel free, otherwise you will be very unstable and change jobs frequently. Your financial situation tends to fluctuate and you will rarely have what would be considered a steady income. You could do well in fields related to inventions, sciences, astrology, electricity, computers, vehicles, or human relationships. With your great desire for independence, you would do better in your own business than working for others. You ignore the accepted value system and usually substitute your own. You might receive money through either inheritances or partners.

Ruler of 2nd house in 1st house:

The anxiety about earning your own money already was generated in your youth, probably by your family upbringing. Your financial income is directly related to your own effort, to the expression of your talents and to the utilization of your physical body.

Earning money is in direct relationship to our self-esteem. If we consider ourselves valuable, money flows and comes into our lives. Work done with love and pleasure doesn't weigh us down and offers a better profit.

WORK IN RELATION TO YOUR EMPLOYMENT: Pisces on 6th house cusp

Your work in relationship to your employment will be expressed by your sensibility, amiability and aesthetic taste. You tend to be very obliging and complacent, which makes you a very good employee. You could suffer some deceptions with your boss or co-workers by idealizing them or by waiting for something they cannot give you. This position generates certain intrigues, envy or lies in the occupational environment. You are more comfortable working in some activity that brings you in contact with living beings (people, animals or plants) that allow you to develop your therapeutic ability.

 Chapter 5 *****

Your creativity and recreational activities. Other skills and hobbies.

Hobbies are also part of our personality and through them, we express to a great extent our creative ability. It is important to enjoy our leisure activities and to complement them with our work or profession to reach greater balance. In our culture, we tend to place importance only on that which brings us money, thereby neglecting the expression of important parts of our personality.

YOUR CREATIVITY: Aquarius on 5th house cusp

Your favorite recreational activities will be those that allow you to socialize and to make new friends. You like to participate in group activities, clubs or organizations that have the same interests you have. You also enjoy any kind of creative or artistic endeavor where you could develop your imagination. If your Sun sign is practical and concrete, you could become an inventor. If you are intellectual, you may like to write. You are likely to enjoy speed and everything related to space trips or science fiction. Your creativity is stimulated by the exchange of ideas with intelligent people, by discussions and also by traveling, especially to exotic places and those of different cultures.

Moon in 5th house:

Some of your pastimes could be: cooking, decorating, collecting photographs or antiques of historical or family value, folk dancing, acting, singing, planting, cultivating, breeding animals, designing clothes or silver jewelry, inventing new meals, caring for children etc.

 Chapter 6 *****

Your vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.

Cancer MC

Your destiny may hold many difficulties and stumbling blocks in the first part of your life; these will be overcome, and if used as learning experiences, will allow you to achieve professional success. Your great sensitivity and affection will be shown in everything you do. You will be interested in everything relating to humanity as well as guiding and teaching others. Your destiny is linked to the public, and you could be well-known in society. However, nothing will come for free, and you will have to work very hard to reach your goals. You are interested in the environment, ecology, nutrition and nature in all its expressions. You are very tolerant, kind and a bit indulgent. You tend to seek approval and support in order to reach your goals, and often your progress will come to a standstill if you don't receive the help you feel you need to go on. You have a very significant spiritual and mystical nature.

Your career choice could be one of the following professions: doctor, pharmacist, chemist, teacher, pediatrician, psychologist, gynecologist, nurse, Yoga instructor, counselor, nutritionist, farmer, food producer or animal breeder etc.

Ruler of 10th house in 5th house:

Your professional success is related to your creativity. No matter what profession you choose, you always show your originality and desire to do things your way. This astrological position leads you to find success, especially in sports or artistic careers. Working in your profession will be a pleasure for you.
